

SAVE THE DATES

June 7 and 8, 2010

---

The Lake Champlain Basin Program and the Lake Champlain Research Consortium will host a conference on Lake Champlain Basin Research on Monday, June 7 and Tuesday, June 8, 2010 at the Davis Center at the University of Vermont. A call for abstracts and more conference details will be forthcoming in the fall of 2009.

A special edition of the Journal of Great Lake Research featuring papers from the conference is being planned. For those interested in submitting written manuscripts, more details will be available in the fall.
