

LOVE THE LAKE

2010 SPEAKER SERIES

On Thursdays at 6:30 p.m., the public is invited to join us and these speakers for homemade desserts, tea, coffee and lively conversations about Lake Champlain.

The LCBP office is in the stone house at 54 West Shore Road in Grand Isle, Vermont—just a short walk from the LCT ferry. ALL EVENTS ARE FREE.

Thursday, March 4, 2010 at 6:30 p.m.

Implications for Lake Champlain's Fisheries, An Angler's Perspective

Mickey Maynard, President, Lake Champlain Chapter of Trout Unlimited

Thursday, March 11, 2010 at 6:30 p.m.

Aquatic Insects - More Than Just Fish Food?

Dr. Declan McCabe, Associate Professor of Biology, Saint Michael's College

Thursday, March 18, 2010 at 6:30 p.m.

The Great Experiment in Conservation: Voices From the Adirondack Park

Jon Erickson, Associate Professor, UVM, Managing Director, Gund Institute for Ecological Economics. Ross Whaley, former Chairman Adirondack Park Agency, Emeritus President, SUNY College of Environmental Science and Forestry

Thursday, March 25, 2010 at 6:30 p.m.

William H. Miner and the Making of Heart's Delight Farm

Dr. Joseph Burke, former Chairman of Miner Institute and former President of SUNY Plattsburgh, Sr. Fellow Rockefeller Institute of Government

For more info contact the LCBP at 800-468-5227.