

You're Invited:

The Lake Champlain Basin Program and the Vermont Boat and Marine Association Invite you to attend a free workshop on Friday, April 1, 2011 regarding marina and recreational boating issues. Please RSVP at the number below.

Marine Workshop
Ice House Restaurant
171 Battery Street, Burlington, Vermont
9:00 a.m. - 12 p.m.

- 9:00 Welcome
Mike O'Brien, President Vermont Boat and Marine Association
- 9:05 Overview of the Workshop
Buzz Hoerr, Emcee and Chair, Lake Champlain Citizens Advisory Committee on Lake Champlain's Future
- 9:10 State of Lake Champlain
Bill Howland, Program Manager, Lake Champlain Basin Program
- 9:40 Updates on Recent Rules
Judy Mirro, Compliance Specialist, Vermont Department of Environmental Conservation
- Federal Spill Prevention, Control and Countermeasure Rule
 - VT Underground Tank Program; VT Stormwater Multi-Sector General Permit; VT Hazardous Waste Management Regulations; General enforcement activities in New England
- 10:15 Current Perspectives on Recreational Boating Issues: Panel Presentations and Discussion
- Nicole Grohoski, LCBP, Technical Associate, Boat Launch Steward Program
 - James Ehlers, Executive Director, Lake Champlain International
 - Mike Winslow, Staff Scientist, Lake Champlain Committee
 - US Coast Guard (Invited)
- 11:45 Wrap Up

Please pre-register so that we may set up seating and morning refreshments.
Please contact the Lake Champlain Basin Program at (802) 372-3213 or (800) 468-5227 or chickey@lcbp.org.

Vermont Boat & Marine Association

