

Engaging Young Scientists!

Educator Workshop Grades 6-12

Sponsored by the Champlain Basin Education Initiative

March 21st 1:00-4:30

ECHO Lake Aquarium and Science Center at the Leahy Center

Welcome

Colleen Hickey, Lake Champlain Basin Program

What Student Monitors Have in Common with George Perkins Marsh

Amy Picotte, Vermont Agency of Natural Resources

Monitoring: How to merge fun and experiential learning to achieve classroom objectives

Brian Slopey, U32 High School

Students in the Stream: How stream water quality and macroinvertebrate monitoring provides scientific snapshots worth sharing

Erin De Vries, UVM Watershed Alliance - Lake Champlain Sea Grant

Lindsay Wieland, Vermont EPSCoR

Summer Time Science: Tracking Blue-green Algae in Your Lake

Mike Winslow, Lake Champlain Committee and a participating citizen monitor

Refreshments

Please join us for a World Water Day gathering and celebration of student work
4:30-7:30 at ECHO

For more details see link

Fee: $10

To register contact Colleen Hickey at 802 372-3213 or chickey@lcbp.org.

CBEI Partners include: Lake Champlain Committee, Lake Champlain Basin Program, Our Curriculum Matters, Shelburne Farms, UVM Watershed Alliance-Lake Champlain Sea Grant, Vermont Agency of Natural Resources – Project WET, and ECHO Lake Aquarium and Science Center at the Leahy Center